Dave Kaiser reported on meeting George Schwartz and he had with the Port of Shelton. The Port was receptive to their inquiry regarding camping overnight for autocross participants. The Port was concerned about other organizations camping on the grass. The Port has not had a problem with NWACC. They praised the dedicated interaction they have had with George Schwartz. Dave and George will meet with the Port and all users in the fall to get a firm decision on camping and maintenance. As of now, no overnight fee will be charged.

Autocross chair – George Schwartz reported on the June 11 autocross. 38 entrants enjoyed the excellent weather. George also commented on the difficulty to find information/registration form for Rose City Shine and Show/Autocross.

The problem solved that evening when it was discovered that the vendor provided 110/120 VAC to 12VDC power adapter for the data link transmitter. The seventh work station was reviewed: course worker assignment, radios, and safety vests.
